Myths to be busted:

Myth #1: Singleness forms your _____.

Myth #2: Marriage is the only God-ordained _____.

Myth #3: The grass is greener on the other side of the _____ fence.

Myth #4: My life plus someone else equals happiness.

Myth #5: Singleness produces _____, while marriage produces _____.

Some of you are single by _____ and others of you by _____.

1. Experience singleness as a _____
_____.

Our identity as Christians is not found in our _____ status but in our _____ status.

2. Exercise singleness as a _____ to _____.

When we serve according to our gifting, God will bring _____ and _____ to our lives.

Your singleness may be a _____ season, but it doesn't have to be a _____ season.

3. How Do I _____ my Singleness?

a. Find your _____ in Jesus.

b. Leverage your _____ on Jesus.

"Lead the life God has assigned to you. Sometimes the assignment is difficult but knowing that your singleness is sacred should embolden you. What if your singleness isn't the _____, but it's the _____?"

Suzanne Gosselin, Sacred Singles
