

TCCMen's Breakfast
 Oct. 9 8am
TCCWomen's Worship Service
 Friday Oct. 15 7pm
Marriage Conference Oct. 22-23
troycc.org/marriageconference

Faithful
Faithfully Allowing for Change
 Genesis 42-44

Our past _____ often create ongoing _____ to see how healthy we are in the present.

To Joseph, all this must have seemed _____ and _____ and _____ all at the same time.

The brothers connect the dots between their own _____ of twenty plus years ago and the events that are _____.

Joseph is realizing that God is actually the one who is _____ this _____.

Our _____ often invades our _____ in very challenging ways.

When a new _____ prompts an old _____, it gives us a fresh opportunity for _____.

Joseph had experienced God's _____ but not God's _____.

The many story lines all hinge on the answer to the question, "Can people really _____?"

"Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, the new creation has come: The old has gone, the new is here!"

2 Corinthians 5:17