

Who Do You Say I Am?
The Heartache of Betrayal

Mark 14:27-72

1. _____ (Mark 14:26-31, Isaiah 53:6)

All the disciples swear their complete and undivided _____.

The use of "I" underscores _____ behind Jesus' death.

2. _____ (Mark 14:32-42)

In Gethsemane, Jesus meets the _____ of heaven.

Jesus _____ the silence, fights off the human _____ to do as He wills, and through prayer _____ to God's will.

3. _____ (Mark 14:43-52)

Judas _____ Jesus, the other disciples all _____ him and flee.

4. _____
(Mark 14:53-65, 11:18, 12:12, 14:1, 14:55, 10:32-34)

This is just what it appears to be, a _____ of _____.

His _____ shows His contempt for their lack of _____.

They are calling on Jesus to _____ even as His _____ are being fulfilled by their actions!

5. _____ (Mark 14:66-72)

Application

Jesus does not just call us to _____ His life, He calls us to _____ it.

1. Give more attention to _____ God's will for our lives than to _____ what we will or will not do.
2. It requires _____ sensitivity to discern the moments we must engage and not be absent.
3. We can stay _____ through the struggle when we are focused on God's _____ and tap into His strength to accomplish them.
4. God's purposes will _____.
5. You and I will all _____.